14. TRUST FOR PETS. As part of this Trust, the Grantor has decided that there shall be: (check one and initial)

☐ - _____ - No Pet Trust. There shall be no monies, assets, or property assigned to any individual for the care or support of any pets owned or not owned by the Grantor.

☐ - _____ - Pet Trust Created. The Grantor shall create a pet trust for the care and support of their pets under the following terms:

- a.) Pet Trustee. _____, of _____.
- b.) Pet Description. _____.
- c.) Pet Support. $_____ shall be made available to the Pet Trustee at the time of the Grantor's incapacitation or death.

- d.) Use of Pet Support. The Pet Trustee shall be responsible for the lifetime care of the pets described herein. The Pet Support shall solely be used for the support, caretaking, and guardianship of the pets. If, for any reason, the pets shall no longer be under the care of the Pet Trustee, any funds remaining of Pet Support shall be returned to the Trust.
- e.) Right to Recover Pets. If the Grantor should be incapacitated or disabled for a temporary period and makes a full recovery, they shall be able to repossess their pets and the remaining amount of the Pet Support.
- f.) Responsibilities. The main purpose of the Pet Trust is to designate a Pet Trustee to provide for the care, health, maintenance, welfare, and support of the pets while maintaining a loving environment for the pets.
- g.) 3rd Party Enforcement. A Beneficiary has the right to enforce any provision of this Pet Trust including, but not limited to, the Pet Trustee providing an adequate home for the pets and an accounting of the Pet Support. Such enforcement may occur on an annual basis and without a court order.
- h.) Revocation. If any provision is being violated, such as the care of the pets not being sufficient or the Pet Support not being used in the manner as intended, a Beneficiary can revoke this Pet Trust under the condition that such Beneficiary agrees to find a home, either with themselves or a 3rd party, for the pets. Under such revocation, any remaining amount of the Pet Support shall be returned to the Trust.
- i.) Termination. This Pet Trust shall terminate upon the death of the last pet. If any remaining amount of the Pet Support exists, it shall be returned to the Trust.

15. GRANTOR PROVISIONS.

- a.) Payments During the Grantor's Life. During the lifetime of the Grantor, the Trustee shall pay all of the net income and capital gains of the Trust, including additional sums from principal amounts that the Grantor may request, to the benefit of the Grantor or any person, vendor, or 3rd party they choose.
- b.) Grantor as Trustee. If at any time the Grantor is the Trustee, the Grantor may amend or revoke this Trust in any manner legal under law.
- c.) Primary Residence. The Grantor shall retain the perpetual right to use, occupy, and establish any real property conveyed into this Trust as their primary domicile for the duration of their lifetimes. This provision is crafted to preserve the Grantor's essential beneficial interest and right of occupancy in the said property. The intent is to maintain a form of ownership equivalent to 'equitable title,' enabling qualification for any residential benefits or protections provided under applicable laws, regardless of the presence of a specific homestead exemption.

- d.) Changing the Amount. The Grantor can change the amount of distributions received at any time, by providing written notice to the Trustee. Any excess income, capital gain, or other monies received shall be added to the principal at the discretion of the Trustee.
- e.) Grantor's Incapacitation. If, at any time, the Grantor is considered incapacitated, the Trustee may pay to or for the benefit of the Grantor such amounts of income and principal as the Trustee believes is in the Grantor's best interest. Such a decision is at the Trustee's sole discretion and is required for the Grantor's support, accustomed standard of living, and any discretionary amounts.
- f.) "Incapacitation" Defined. Under this Trust, incapacitation is defined as the Grantor no longer having the cognitive ability to make or manage their own affairs while showing signs of memory loss and an inability to make their own decisions. If the Grantor's incapacitation is questioned by a 3rd party or an individual mentioned in this Trust, such incapacitation must be verified by two independent licensed medical physicians.
- g.) Death. Upon the death of the Grantor, the property mentioned in this Trust shall be distributed to its Beneficiaries.

16. RIGHTS OF BENEFICIARIES.

- a.) Failure to Perform Duties. If a Trustee or Successor Trustee resigns or fails to perform their responsibilities under this Trust, the Beneficiaries shall have the right, with majority support, to appoint such positions and replace them under this Trust. Such appointment must be approved via court order with the newly appointed Trustee or Successor Trustee to have the same responsibilities as the original position.
- b.) Trust Property. The Beneficiaries mentioned shall be equally entitled to the assets and property mentioned in the Property Attachment minus any specific bequests, gifts, debts, taxes, expenses, or any other deductions made by the Grantor. In addition, property that is placed in the ownership of this Trust shall be considered part of this Trust and made part of the Residual Estate.
- c.) Accounting. The Beneficiaries shall have the right to audit and demand accounting records for the Trust. Such records shall be made on a quarterly basis and distributed by the Trustee to the Beneficiaries upon request.

17. ADDITIONAL TRUST PROVISIONS.

- a.) Distributions. Any distributions made, either generally to the Beneficiaries or by specific distributions, shall be fulfilled after payments are made related to the Grantor's debts, funeral expenses, medical bills, and any other monies owed by their estate.

- b.) Revived from Incapacitation. If any Trustee or Grantor is revived and no longer considered incapacitated, they shall resume their position and role in this Trust. Upon their death, the Successor Trustee shall take over management of the Trust and distribute its assets in accordance with its instructions.
- c.) Funding the Trust. The Grantor agrees to transfer, assign, convey, and deliver to the Trustee the property described in the Property Attachment and made a part hereof. Such property shall constitute the Residual Estate to be held "in trust" and to be managed in accordance with this Trust. Transferring property to this Trust is not limited to the Grantor and can be received by any 3rd party individual or entity.
- d.) Management of Trust. Unless otherwise stated, the Trustee shall have the powers outlined in this Trust to manage and distribute the Trust assets for the benefit of the Grantor. If more than one Trustee is mentioned, they shall act jointly and severally as the Trustees of this Trust. The Trustees shall be obligated to act in the Grantor's best interest, which takes precedence over the interests of the Beneficiaries.
- e.) Reimbursement. A Trustee is entitled to be reimbursed for any out-of-pocket expenses that are paid on a personal basis while acting on behalf or by the management of this Trust.
- f.) Tax Identification. For tax purposes, this Trust shall be identified by the Grantor's Social Security Number during their lifetime. Upon their death, the acting Trustee shall apply for a tax identification number from the Internal Revenue Service.
- g.) Purpose of Trust. The Grantor has established this Trust of their own free will with its primary purpose to benefit of the individuals named herein.
- h.) Successor Trustees. If more than one Successor Trustee is chosen, they must act jointly when making decisions on behalf of this Trust. If any disagreement arises amongst the Successor Trustees, they must follow Governing Law as a resolution to the dispute.
- i.) Termination of Trust. This Trust shall terminate upon all property from the Residual Estate being distributed as instructed under this Trust.

18. REVOCATION. During the Grantor's lifetime, and while not under any disability or incapacitation, the Grantor may revoke or amend this Trust by written notice at any time. Such notice must be delivered to the Trustee. After receipt, the Trustee is obligated to adjust their actions in accordance with the notice.

19. GOVERNING LAW. This Trust shall be construed in accordance with the laws located in the State of Tennessee.

20. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Trust, or the application of any such provision to any person or circumstance, shall be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid and unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Trust, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Trust shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by Governing Law.
