This Agreement is governed by the Governing Law with the jurisdiction for any court process to be of the Landlord's preference in such area.
- f.) Equal Housing. If the Tenant possesses any mental or physical impairment, the Landlord shall provide reasonable modifications to the Property unless the modifications would be too difficult or expensive for the Landlord to provide. Any impairments of the Tenant are encouraged to be provided and presented to the Landlord in writing to seek the most appropriate solution for providing modifications to the Property.
- g.) Indemnification. The Tenant agrees to indemnify and hold the Landlord harmless against all losses, damages, liabilities, claims, and expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by the Landlord arising out of or related to the Tenant's use or occupancy of the Property, except to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord.   - m.) Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof shall, for any reason and to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, neither the remainder of this Agreement nor the application of the provision to other persons, entities, or circumstances shall be affected thereby, but instead shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law.
  - n.) Subletting. If subletting is allowed, the Tenant acknowledges that any subtenants must follow the rules, responsibilities, and obligations under this Agreement and cannot occupy the Property longer than the Term.     - i. Subletting Allowed with the Landlord's Consent. If this option is selected in Section 18, the Landlord must grant consent for each subtenant allowed on the Property.
